4.9. Confidential Information

Directors should maintain the confidentiality of information entrusted to them in carrying out their duties and responsibilities, except where disclosure is approved by the Company or legally mandated or if such information is in the public domain. The Company's confidential and proprietary information shall not be inappropriately disclosed or used for the personal gain or advantage of any director or anyone other than the Company. These obligations apply not only during a Director's term, but thereafter as well.

4.10. Protection and Proper Use of Company's Assets

Each person to whom this code is applied should protect Company's assets and property and ensure its efficient use. Theft, carelessness, and waste of the Company's assets and property have a direct impact on the Company's profitability. Company's assets should be used only for legitimate business purposes.

4.11. Compliance with Laws and Regulations

In carrying out their duties and responsibilities, directors should comply, and endeavor to ensure that the management is causing the Company to comply, with applicable laws, rules and regulations. In addition, if any director becomes aware of any information that he or she believes constitutes evidence of a material violation of any securities or other laws, rules or regulations applicable to the Company or the operation of its business, by the Company, any employee or another director, then such director should bring such information to the attention of the Board of Directors of the Company.

4.12. Compliance with Code of Conduct & Reporting concerns

If any person to whom this code is applied who knows of or suspects of a violation of applicable laws, rules or regulations or this Code, such person must immediately report the same to the Board or any designated person/ committee thereof. Such person should as far as possible provide the details of suspected violations with all known particulars relating to the issue. The Company recognizes that resolving such problems or concerns will advance the overall interests of the Company, which will help to safeguard the Company's assets, financial integrity and reputation.

In the event of non-compliance with the Code, it is left to the discretion of the Board to take appropriate action against the person who has violated this Code. This discretion, however, will not be exercised arbitrarily and regard will be had to various factors such as the nature and circumstances of each case, the verity and impact of the non-compliance, whether the intention of the accused was mala fide, etc.

Disciplinary actions may include termination of employment. Where the Company has suffered a loss, it may pursue its remedies against the individuals or entities responsible. Where laws have been violated, the Company will cooperate fully with the appropriate authorities.

4.13. Insider Trading

Directors should observe all applicable laws and with respect to the purchase and sale of the Company's securities. It is the responsibility of each director to become familiar with and understand these laws and regulations. Insider Trading generally involves the act of subscribing or buying or selling of the Company's securities, when in the possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information ("UPSI") about the Company. It also involves disclosing any UPSI about the Company to others who could subscribe or buy or sell the Company's securities.
